Issue 1

Our 34th Year of bringing Woodworkers together

The Next Meeting is 7pm Wednesday, Jan 28th at the Al Bahr Temple, 5440 Kearny Mesa Rd.
behind the Hampton Inn

January Program: New Woodturning Techniques with Tom Edwards

Tom Edwards, an officer with the local woodturning group, will give a demonstration, talk about woodturning techniques and discuss his new method of using resin in the finish of the bowl. This allows using imperfect wood by filling the missing areas with clear and or colored resins. Tom, a retired Navy Seal, now shows his work at the Spanish Village Art Center and has won several awards at the Del Mar Design In Wood show. Lately, he has been demonstrating at various woodturning clubs around the U.S. Tom's website is:

http://www.artinwood.org/t_edwards/tedwards.html

The meeting will be on Wednesday, January 28th at 7:00PM in the Al Bahr Temple, located at 5440 Kearny Mesa Rd. (behind the Hampton Inn)

Hope to see you there

Dell Cover,
Program Chairman

February Shop Tour: Brian Jackson's Shop February 14th, 2015

The tour begins at 9:00 am, coffee and donuts will be served. Brian will demonstrate the Rose engine lathe. If you aren't familiar with this fascinating piece of equipment, prepare to be amazed. His shop is located at 9598 Leyendekker Court, Lakeside, CA 92040. Come out and enjoy the fellowship of like-minded wood enthusiasts. Brian's website is: jacksonwoodworks.com

President's Message January, 2015

In my first message as your new President, I would like to start by wishing all a Happy New Year. I sincerely hope your holidays were filled with joy and that you begin 2015 with the intent to be active in woodworking and all the other activities which bring you happiness.

Importantly, I would like to thank the membership for trusting me with the leadership role for this year and the vast number of others who have agreed to take on the role of officers, committee leaders and members. Our numerous and diverse activities require many of us to step up and take on the responsibility of leading the group through these efforts and we really appreciate those who accept the call. Our special thanks go out also to those who served us so well last year; we are especially fortunate that Dick Ugoretz, our very capable president for both 2013 and 2014, will remain on the Board and be available to guide us through the year.

I am excited by the outlook for this year and will do my best to make it a very successful one for all of our members. The organizational meeting for the Design In Wood group held early this month made it clear that their new leader, Ed Gladney, is highly qualified for the role and that he has the support of a large and dedicated group who rightfully take pride in our annual show at the Del Mar fairgrounds. Bob Stevenson, who successfully led the DIW event for so many years with the help of his wife Janet, has decided to move on and has put forward an ambitious plan to instill new vigor in our Mentor program.

Our program chair, Del Cover, remains active in lining up an interesting and informative set of speakers for our General Membership meetings, beginning with Tom Edwards who will speak of his unique approach to woodturning at our General Meeting on Wednesday, January 28, 2015. I hope as many as possible are able to join us at 7 PM at Al Bahr Temple, located at 5440 Kearny Mesa Rd. (behind the Hampton Inn). Dale Stauffer organized another of his popular Shop Tours on Saturday, January 10 at Al DeVrie's shop in El Cajon.

Our January General Meeting will also find us setting out on a new course with one of our sponsors, Rockler. Mike Durlak, who manages the local Rockler store and has always been a big supporter, has agreed to provide a speaker to lead an informal class in various subjects before our regular meetings get started. Paul Durshem will lead off with a 45 minute class in Finishing, starting at 6 PM at the Al Bahr Temple where our regular meeting will be held later beginning at 7 PM. Many of us have enjoyed these classes in the past which have typically been held on a Saturday morning in front of the store, so I expect many will find these helpful and interesting. Depending on the response to this first class, we hope to continue offering such events before each of our meetings.

If you are reading this online, please scan through other sections of our website to familiarize yourself with our organization and the calendar of events for this year. If you are not yet a member, please feel free to attend one of our General Membership meetings to check us out. While there will be no pressure, we hope you find it as inviting as we did and decide to join us.

Bernie Burke
President, SDFWA

DESIGN IN WOOD 2015

The New Year brings us once again to preparations for the annual Design in Wood Exhibition. Again this year, we hope to improve this exceptional international competition of fine woodworking. We have secured major commitments from our many corporate and local sponsors. Our co-sponsor, the 22nd Agricultural District, also looks forward to our successful exhibition. Last year's attendance provided the opportunity for over one million fairgoers to see our exhibit.

This year's theme is A Fair to Remember: a Celebration of World's Fairs & Balboa Park. The fair has teamed with the City of San Diego in its Centennial Celebration of Balboa Park. We will have a special exhibit area planned around the theme this year.

Fine Woodworking Magazine will sponsor the "Best of Show" award as the top award. We will be giving out over $20,000 in cash and merchandise awards.

The Design in Wood Committee meets the first Saturday of each month, January through May 2015.

Now is the time for you to get busy on your entry for the competition. The fair will run 24 days again this year from June 5 to July 5, 2015. All entries are online this year. and will be available on the fair's website beginning in January. There is plenty of computer help available for those that need it to enter. The fair entry office personnel, as well as SDFWA volunteers, are available to help with entering online. This includes help with digital photography if needed. For help from SDFWA members please call or email me at 858-484-4366, EdGladney@san.rr.com or Jeff Bratt at 619-276-8641, webmaster@sdfwa.org

Please note: The entry deadline is May 1, 2015.

Please note the calendar of events below:

Registration Deadline: Friday, May 1, 2015
Exhibit Delivery Date: Thursday, May 28, 2015
noon to 8:00pm
Exhibit Awards Ceremony: Thursday June 4, 2015
7:00pm

Volunteers from our membership are desperately needed

NO experience is necessary and volunteering is very rewarding

We need help with set up Monday, May 18 through Friday, May 22. In addition to free fair tickets, enjoy coffee, juice and donuts in the morning, a great lunch and refreshments throughout the day.

We need members to “walk the floor” to help educate the public and protect the exhibits. A shift is three hours. You receive two tickets for each shift or four tickets for each closing (last shift in the evening) floor-walking shift.

We need members to work in the chair shop, building children's chairs for charity. A shift is two hours. You receive two tickets for each shift.

Fair tickets will be given to those who volunteer. Volunteer for several shifts and you can receive enough tickets for your family and friends. Up to 4 tickets will be given to those who help with setup (exact number depends on amount of time helping). Two tickets will be given for each floor-walking shift or chair-shop shift.

Remember, sign up for a shift and get 2 free tickets to the Fair. Sign up for several shifts and get enough for your family and friends also.

AGAIN THIS YEAR: SIGN UP FOR THE CLOSING FLOOR WALKING SHIFTS AND DOUBLE YOUR TICKETS TO 4 TICKETS FOR EACH CLOSING SHIFT

For those who help with set up, we have free tickets based on how much time you work, along with refreshments and a great lunch

Sign up to volunteer at www.sdfwa.org or at the General meetings, starting with this month's general meeting on January 28.

This is your exhibit SDFWA. Let's make it the VERY BEST. 858-484-4366 EdGladney@san.rr.com

Notes from the Webmaster

It's a new year, and there are some new faces on the SDFWA Board of Directors – including myself, as I'll also be taking on the Treasurer duties this year. We've got ideas about reinvigorating some programs SDFWA has done in the past, and new ideas we hope you'll be excited about. We can always use help – you can volunteer by contacting any Board member or Committee chair.

The new website has been up and running for just over one year. I've been getting generally positive feedback, and I also try to respond to fix problems and implement suggestions. While I'm generally happy about the look and design, we still have some issues when working with the membership database. I apologize if this has caused some login problems – I'll fix those when you tell me about them. Fortunately, there is really not much that requires one to login – all the website content is visible, there is nothing hidden. There are only two things that require a login – to renew your membership on-line, or to sign-up on-line for the Fall Seminar at the member's price.

Still, this year there will be a major effort on the “behind the scenes” part of the website to streamline all the duplicated effort currently required to keep the website logins up-to-date.

IN MEMORIAM

We remember the three fellow woodworkers whose lives ended in the past 12 months.

Mark Fuller

Russel Camp

Alvin Strunk

Each of these fine individuals was a long time member of our association, a good friend to many of us and a great contributor to our activities.

2015 Craftsman List Update

The Craftsman List is posted on the association website, www.sdfwa.org, under the heading of resources and is also passed out at the Design In Wood exhibit at the San Diego County Fair when visitors are looking for someone who does woodworking. The list is only open to active memberships.

I am in the process of updating the list. If you are currently a member and want to remain on the list or do not want to continue on the list, please let me know. If you do not respond by February 15th, you will be dropped from the list. If you need to make changes, please provide them when you reply about remaining on the list. If you are not on the list and want to be placed on the list, please provide the following information in the order as listed: Last Name, First Name, Business Name, City, Zip, Phone, Email/Website, Do you do this Full Time or Part Time? Your Level of proficiency (pro, advanced, intermediate), your Specialty. Please provide all inputs to CraftsmanList@sdfwa.org. I will need all inputs by February 15, 2015.

Ron Rossi, Craftsman List Chairman

Report on Jan. 10th Shop Tour

On January 10th we had the privilege of touring the wonderful workshop of Al DeVries. The turnout was good, the weather was perfect and Al's presentation was highly informative. He had many examples of his woodwork displayed which he has built over the years. Intarsia, jewelry boxes, custom cabinets and a great storage shed he built for his lumber were among the myriad items to study.

Al kept everyone in rapt attention as he went around his shop noting and demonstrating the custom jigs, work benches and tool cabinets he designed and built; many of which he has had published in woodworking magazines.

Al built his shop from the ground up about 22 years ago. The layout is a marvel of efficiency. He explained his method of workflow and tool choices, all the while offering many tips for maintaining and using tools. Because he has been woodworking for so many years he was able to offer many insights for dealing with the inevitable march of time that the aging woodworker faces. He demonstrated special handles he has created to allow extra leverage while adjusting jigs and tools. He confided that he now makes mostly smaller pieces like boxes, many of which he had on display. They are beautiful.

The one thing that most impressed me about Al's shop was the degree of organization his custom made cabinets allowed. I was left not only impressed but, truth to tell, feeling personally inadequate. Upon arriving back home I had the overwhelming urge to get organized!

Wants

Welburn Gourd Farm is looking to outsource their precut gourd work. They need to find the appropriate person to take on the work. Ideally they would contract on a per piece basis. Their current output is approximately 100-200 pieces per month, but they are expecting an increase. To start, they would send the contractor cleaned bottle gourds:

Have pots and mini vases made:
