Member Shop Project

Member Shop Chairman

September was a banner month for our Member Shop as we hosted our first Workshop featuring a nationally known woodworker... Garrett Hack. 16 of us had the unique opportunity to learn, direct from a true "Master" how to add "delightful details" to our projects. Garrett did an outstanding job and there is already talk of bringing him back at some point in the future. The tremendous response we had for this Workshop will likely lead to more in the future. Kudos to Pete Sterling for arranging this... and to Garret!

October 6-7, we will have our own booth at the San Diego Maker Faire in Balboa Park. This should be a tremendous opportunity to introduce thousands of San Diegans to the existence of SDFWA and the Member Shop. If you'd like to help man the booth, please contact our Project Manager, Albert Gora, albertgora@sbcglobal.net

In November we will undertake one of our most ambitious projects yet....our Holiday Gift Show. This sale will be a "high end" craft sale right there at the Shop on Friday afternoon,

November 16th and all day on Saturday, November 17th. This will be one of the most important fund-raising activities for the Shop. And we can use your help! Please contribute one or more items you've made to this sale. It does not have to be Holiday themed. We need anything that will sell....bowls, boxes, small furniture, toys, sculptures, carvings, wall hangings, digital art, utensils, pens, jewelry or whatever else you might want to do. If every Member contributes just one item, the sale should be a tremendous success!

Contact Special Projects Director, Doug Glessner, for more information, <mailto:dkgless@yahoo.com>.

Shop Members, don't miss the September "Eye Opener" on September 29th at 8am. Joe Penny will be showing his method for gluing up segmented turning blanks for the beautiful bowls that he turns.

Design in Wood Exhibition Report

Planning has already begun for the 2019 San Diego Fair and the San Diego Fine Woodworker's Design in Wood (DIW) exhibition. The 2019 theme is "The Wizard of Oz". It's not too early to start designing your 2019 entry. Time flies by fast. Remember to leave enough time to apply and cure your finish. The one common thing that separates winners is the finish. There are many opportunities for SDFWA members to get an award. Entries will open late January or early February.

I reported on SDFWA winners in the July newsletter. Here is some overall information from last year's San Diego Fair and Design in Wood Exhibition.

One discipline that needs more entries is furniture or art designed and made by CNC and/or Laser. Class 007 - "Furniture Designed and Created by Computer – Laser and/or CNC" ONLY had 2 entries. Class 015 - "Veneering/Marquetry Art – Designed & Created by Computer Laser and/or CNC" had only 4 entries (and 3 were from the same entrant). I expect to see more entries next year with the addition of the CNC and Laser capabilities in our Member Shop.

2018 Fall Seminar Report

We just completed our annual Fall Seminar with Garrett Hack as our guest speaker. I am pleased to report that by all accounts it was a rousing success. Garrett was engaging, entertaining and full of energy. He spent Friday evening showing and explaining his approach and philosophy of woodworking. Besides seeing examples of his work, we learned about his farm and how he harvests much of the wood he uses. He spent the rest of the weekend lecturing and building a small cabinet almost entirely by hand. He used the band saw only once to fit the stiles to the cabinet. He came prepared with enough parts already made, so he could show some of the hand work without boring us with repetitive cutting of parts. He had all the mortises premade and left just one that he could demonstrate. He was well prepared and kept moving along with each step. This is the first time a speaker actually finished a project during the weekend. He not only completed the assembly, he finished the cabinet with a fresh coat of shellac. His attention to detail is incredible. He showed us how to decorate a simple cabinet with details like the banded inlay down the sides, the molding at the top, and enhance it with a simple addition of a small molding. He invited us all up on stage and to look at and feel his tools. He encouraged people to see and feel his tools. He was very open to questions and I was particularly impressed by how he could continue to talk while working. That kept all of us engaged in what he was doing. It made for a very enjoyable weekend. We all certainly learned a lot about hand work and how to enhance a simple cabinet with very simple decoration that can be made in a very short time with simple tools. He showed us how to make the crown molding at the top of the cabinet with hand planes, rasps and very little sandpaper. One of the tools he frequently uses is the small scraping tool he used to make and finish the various moldings. (He taught us how to make and sharpen various scraper blades). He sells this tool for $40. He ran out at the seminar, but he will sell it to our members, postage paid. Send your order to Garrett Hack, abundance.farm.vt@gmail.com.

Besides the many door prizes that were donated by Mike Durlak from Rockler Woodworking, we sold tickets for a special raffle at the end of the seminar. The proceeds will go to Rockler, who in turn will use the funds to provide pen kits and turning equipment to the "Turnaround for VETS" program put on by the San Diego Wood Turners. This year, in addition to the cabinet, we had a Porter Cable Router set donated by Rockler and an autographed copy of one of Garrett's books, "The HANDPLANE Book" donated by one of our members. I am pleased to report that we raised $1100 for the program this year. Pictures of the winners are below:

It was a great seminar and thoroughly enjoyed by all that attended. These seminars are put on as a benefit to our members. Our goal is to provide an opportunity to see and meet a nationally known woodworker at a greatly reduced cost compared to any other class being offered. We are not looking to make a profit from this event. Over the years we have been forced to raise prices as our costs have increased. Our seminar attendance has fallen over the past few years from what it once was. It is up from last year, but it still could be better. I would like your feedback. Email me and tell me what or who you would like to see in your fall seminar. Also, to those of you that did not attend this year, why not? Just a short email saying travel, too expensive, not interested in the subject, whatever the reason, please let me know. What would you like to see changed that would convince you to attend in the future?

Dear Mr. Vitale,

On behalf of the Atonement Lutheran Church family we would like to gratefully acknowledge the gift of 50 plus wood toys and 4 Oak children's Chairs, of which no goods or services were exchanged for this donation.

Our Congregation has given them to families with small children and they are enjoying them. As one of the mother's said "Her son is having so much fun with his new toy, it is fun to watch him play with it."

We can't say thank you enough for the wonderful donation.
